

When science discovers a forgotten truth: THE DOUBLING

by Jean Pierre Garnier Malet:
author of the doubling theory of space and time¹.

In 2019, I will publish a new book (the scientific summary will be in the appendix, on the basis of the publications), explaining the daily applications so much needed in our world which is actually living a « troubled » end of a doubling of time cycle.

This is not a Technique. The aim is to finally use a Vital Forgotten Principle.
You need to know its simple logic as there is No instructions manual.

The discovery: Time appears to us to be continuous, yet the medical imaging of the brain shows that it is not so and the doubling theory demonstrates that two perceptible instants are always separated by an imperceptible instant.

Doubling makes us present in a time that we do not perceive in our time, the present, but where, as any space or particle, we are doubled in order to keep the memory of our potentials.

Called “Time Openings” by JPGM, these imperceptible instants allow us to exchange in our time, the present, vital information between the guardian of our memory, the past, and our multiple future possibilities, the future.

Anyone can therefore optimise the future before having to live it, understand his life and create an individual and collective balance. Without this control we become puppets of the future and our life on earth is not worth anything.

By forgetting all that you have learned, you can start off again from new bases as amazing as they are indispensable. This discovery entails a complete questioning of your way of living and allows you to quickly find a physical or psychic balance, as well as equilibrium within your sentimental, family or professional lives, which corresponds to the new balance of your thoughts.

A workshop (carried out in the evening and the following morning, with the night in between) allows us, thanks to the control of this vital principle the discovery and immediate control of an enormous individual energy potential, related to these “Time openings”. This daily control offers us the best potential available to get into balance while at the same time modifying our instincts and intuitions.

This workshop optimises therapies and quests for balance

In finding our own balance, we contribute towards balancing others, as well as balancing our planet, which, has become off-kilter only through our ignorance.

Note: Not having authorised anybody to teach the Doubling theory and its applications, JPGM declines all liability. The doubling theory does not allow any fanciful applications of unscrupulous people who lead their audience towards dogmatic impasses. Those who want to lead their audience towards a rigorous scientific logic give my email address.

¹ Scientific discovery of JPGM (*) : One of my last publications (in the very famous magazine: American Institute of Physics – New York) won an award signed by twelve scientists whose international reputation is no longer to be made. But Schopenhauer said: An important discovery is first been ridiculed, after it leads to a violent opposition and finally it is admitted as evidence! »

Now it's time for the evidence... and plagiarism!

(*) Discovered in 1988 – Published in international scientific magazines : "The Doubling Theory", by J.P. Garnier Malet. More information for Scientifics: please send me an email. A web site www.garnier-malet.com - explains the theory to make it available to anyone who wants to try to understand it in order to use it better.
